Word Chain Challenge/Bulletin Board Idea:

Challenge your students to begin with the phrase *welcome back and then think of another term that attaches logically to back (ground in the example below). Continue the chain so that each addition connects sensibly to both the word located before it and the word located after it. The anchor term back can be used more than once. See who can construct the longest chain.

Display the results on a Welcome Back bulletin board.

Super Challenge: Construct one, huge whole class chain that covers a full bulletin board. Display words individually on index-stock paper.

(Example)

welcome back ground water fall back rest stop sign post office party time out side kick back flip book store front yard sale price cut back door lock down town house number one more over work hard back hand made up start over , etc. . . .
